CANADA DANCESPORT PROFESSIONAL DIVISION CODE OF CONDUCT

ADJUDICATORS, SCRUTINEERS and CHAIRPERSONS of ADJUDICATORS

Conflict of Interest

A Conflict of Interest is any interest, relationship, association or activity that is incompatible with a Chairperson's or Adjudicator's obligations to ensure that all competitors are judged on their merits, free from any bias or coercion. Conflicts of Interest arise in particular when the personal interests of an adjudicator may influence that adjudicator's judgement or ability to act in the best interest of CDS PD, CDS or its Regional Associations, which is the same as in the best interest of the competitors. A Chairperson and an Adjudicator must adhere to the rules set out in this Code, and shall retire from the panel where any potential Conflict of Interest arises.

Impartiality

1. CDS PD Adjudicator should be and should appear to be fair and impartial with respect to his or her decisions and conduct.
2. CDS PD Adjudicator must distance themselves from any sort of arbitrariness and must not, by any manner whatsoever, try to influence the results of a competition by subjective or unfounded acts.
3. CDS PD Adjudicator should excuse himself or herself in any case where he or she believes will be unable to adjudicate impartially that includes adjudicating family members.
4. CDS PD Adjudicator shall strive to ensure his or her conduct, in and outside of the competition, maintains and enhances confidence in his or her fairness.
5. CDS PD Adjudicator must adjudicate independently and free of any influence.
6. CDS PD Adjudicator must reject any attempt to influence his or her decisions.
7. CDS PD Adjudicator should make every effort to ensure that his or her conduct is above reproach in the view of informed, fair minded and reasonable persons.
8. CDS PD Adjudicator must not contact competition promoters with the promise to bring students to their competition in exchange for a position on the adjudicating panel for oneself or some one in the same studio.
9. CDS PD Adjudicator must not coach, teach or give any advice to any participating athlete or competitor including family members on the day of and during an event/competition at which he/she is judging.

Diligence

1. CDS PD Adjudicator should be diligent in the performance of his or her duties.
2. CDS PD Adjudicator must take reasonable steps to maintain and enhance the knowledge, skills and personal qualities necessary in the performance of his or her duties.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Complaints

CDS PD will investigate and rule upon any complaint regarding the behavior of CDS PD member within the guidelines of the Association rules. All complaints must be submitted in writing and signed by complainer /s. Upon receipt of the complaint, CDS PD will inform the individual complained against in writing. He or she shall have the right to answer such complaints or charges.

Suspension

If an infringement of any of the above codes has been proven, CDS PD may impose a suitable penalty. This may include suspension from adjudicating or membership in CDS PD if deemed appropriate.
